

Ironworkers

Provider: Alaska Ironworkers

Length: 4 Years

Website

<http://www.jobs.state.ak.us/apprentice/ironworkers.htm>

A paid apprenticeship training program in Ironwork leading to a journeyperson certificate. Courses in safety, basic math, trade history, use of hand tools, basic rigging, first aid, knots, welding, basic drawings, structural systems, sheeting, forklift.

Related Occupations

Structural Iron and Steel Workers

Department of Labor and Workforce Development, Research and Analysis Section
P.O. Box 115501
Juneau, Alaska 99811-5501
Phone: 907.465.4500, Fax: 907.523.9654
June 30, 2014